Let's do it together!

For me as editor-in-chief of eyebizz, it is not so important how our readers, viewers and listeners find out about the industry, where they learn about the innovations and developments that are relevant to their daily business and entrepreneurial success: The main thing is that it's via an eyebizz channel!

As a magazine, an online portal, via social media, in webinars and at events, we offer further training, current market events, tips and suggestions, opinions, trends and technologies. In short, as the media brand with the widest reach for communication in the optical industry, we provide an outlook with perspective and pick up our friends, fans and followers on all platforms.

It is important to me personally that you, our industry partners, can always benefit from our publications and services. I also value good journalism, which should make it easier for you to do just that. Wolfgang Schneider, the pope of language, used to say that 'quality comes from agony', and it is the author, editor, presenter, social media manager etc. who should agonize over it.. We take this to heart every day that we are here for you!

We know what opticians, the industry and all the members of the industry out there are capable of achieving. out there, and we know what they need to focus on to prove it every day. We support you with the conviction that we can provide the guardrails between which you will find the the right path to success.

Let's do it together!

Yours, Ingo Rütten, eyebizz Editor-in-Chief
